Event Date and Time:

16:00 - 17:30 IST, May 3, 2022

Brief Description:

Watched Zathura: A Space Adventure movie and wished you could play that game? Then get ready, prepare your Spaceship to travel across the Solar System using your knowledge in Space and Astronomy to solve clues, explore different planets and find treasure with this fun treasure hunt event.

Team Structure:

- Team size: 2-4
- Registration link: <https://forms.gle/8caMMzX1PhzBbBMw7>

Note : Any one member from the team (team leader) can fill the google form.

Instructions:

1. All participants must join the google meet along with their team members which will be provided prior to the event.
2. All teams will be introduced to the story related to space travel and will be given the problem statements in the meeting itself at each level.
3. Per question time will be given and teams have to solve them under the given time. No answer will be accepted after the time runs out.
4. Same sequence continues until the final problem.
5. Hints will be provided after 70% of time runs out (this may depend on the difficulty of question)
6. Full points will be rewarded if the team gives the correct answer before the hints are given whereas partial marks will be given after the hints are revealed.
7. At the end, the team with the maximum points will be declared as the winner.
8. In case of tie, a tiebreaker round will be there.
9. In case of any other issue, the decision made by the event coordinators will be final.

Rules and regulations -

1. All the participants should be present at the specified meeting at least 5-10 minutes before the commencement of the event.
2. Rules and regulations can be modified at any point of time, with prior intimation to registered participants.
3. In case of dispute, the organisers'/judge's decision will be considered final.
4. Usage of the internet will be allowed but sharing answers or hints or any other form of cheating is highly discouraged. Kindly refrain from using any unfair means and if found, will lead to disqualification straightaway, and may even demerit your participation in other events of Astrax'22
